

My family truly believes that our privacy should remain protected from telemarketers and their likes. If we want to provide the information, then it is OUR right to seek them. They do not have the right to invade the privacy of my home or my freedom whenever they choose. Please continue to protect my rights. Thank you.